Mr. Hsiu joined the real estate industry in 2013 and has experience in both real estate investment and development. Most recently, he worked at Intracorp, a Vancouver-based multi-family residential development company where he was responsible for qualifying and underwriting development opportunities. In this role, he obtained valuable experience in investment analysis, deal structuring and securing capital placement.

Prior to this experience, Mr. Hsiu worked in the brokerage department at Colliers International where he gained exposure to sell-side operations and various commercial asset classes. As a member of the Investment Team, he was directly involved in the analysis and valuation of commercial sale transactions totaling over $200 million in aggregate value.

Mr. Hsiu holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the Sauder School of Business (University of British Columbia) and is a CFA charter holder.
